EL-312 Section 211.3 states:

211.3 Evaluating Vacancies

When a vacancy is anticipated, the installation head must determine if a continuing need exists for the position. Consideration must be given to whether the personnel complement can be adjusted downward by one vacant position through the elimination of the position. If a decision is made to eliminate a position, action is taken to revert the position according to the appropriate provision of the National Agreement.

https://about.usps.com/handbooks/el312/welcome.htm